I was sent by Jeremiah up to the lookout tower to pick up some 'drying skins' to repair his coat.. The Long Dark All Discussions You can craft a bearskin coat with the following materials: cured bear skin x2 and cured gut x4.. On top of that it takes alot of time to craft, so that's why I think it is not worth making one.

I can see the bearskin laying on the floor of the lookout tower, but I can't interact with it.. I miss the wolf skin coat myself Much more attractive to me than the bear head hanging over my heart LOL.. I DID kill a bear earlier in the game on my way back from the maintenance yard, while I was passing through forlorn muskeag and have a bearskin drying on the floor of the trappers cabin (Jeremiah's cabin).
